

THE REAL THREAT TO AMERICA

By Hilmar von Campe

There is a great deal of confusion regarding the nature of the Nazi movement. Most if not all people who are familiar with the events of those years agree that its leaders were criminals. But quite a number of them, especially in the media, call Nazis fascists. Even though the bloody years of their rule ended 60 years ago, the definition of who they were is of great importance for today. Without it we would be blind to reality.

As a German WWII veteran who grew up under the Nazis who has studied about everything, which has anything to do with their ideology it is not difficult to define their reality. The principle theme of my 180 radio interviews in America has always been the comparison of the moral and ideological basis of the German Nazi society of that time and the American society of today. That theme also enters my books and articles. Nazi society was based on lies, and lies are in the process of taking over America. I try to clarify for the American people that the ideological attack on America is part of the global attempt to eliminate God everywhere, replace Him with arbitrary rule of (left) man and destroy freedom. Godlessness is America's and freedom's number one enemy.

Nazi is an abbreviation of National Socialist. Nazis are Socialists. That means they are radical left wing. Fascists on the other hand have to be placed on the right. To put the label of Fascism on National Socialism is an invention by the Soviet and East-German Communist leaderships after the war. It was meant to eliminate in the public mind the embarrassing link between the Nazi movement and Socialism and hide the deadly threat to free society, which the latter represents. They launched their antifascist movement in East Germany, and with the help of the left media around the world made the label of Fascism stick. They also invented the word Nacism, a ridiculous word creation also used in the US, for the same reason: to replace the correct definition National Socialism.

The implication of what I am saying is far-reaching. Fascism, an authoritarian form of government with ugly features, is not an international conspiracy and a global threat to the United States. Socialism, especially in its marxist/leninist form - and even more so in the form of the Frankfurt School - is. There are innumerable different socialist parties and movements. They are all fruits of the same rotten tree and lead inevitably to a totalitarian system. All Socialist functionaries use national concepts and language in their different countries but you can't argue rationally with them because they have a hidden different purpose, which is different from the purpose of their non-socialist opponents. They are committed to transform the world into a socialist system with them at the top. They are in America and they are no patriots, they are traitors to their country, to the words and spirit of the constitution, and to the mission of freedom, given by our creator to this nation at her birth. The 'politically correct' is the American equivalent of the 'party line' of the Nazis and the Communists.

The May issue of the magazine 'Whistleblower' has the title 'The Party of Treason' It refers to the Democratic Party. In it Bob Just describes the reality of this, his own party. "Hatred and corruption," he writes, "are on the march in America as they have never been before, and leading this march is the Democratic Party." And the United Nations I add. Just points out that there seems to be a loyalty to "something other than the American people", and refers very often to the Nazis. "If I am right about the fanatical direction my party is taking, then America has never faced a danger like this, and real Democrats who stand by and watch will be guilty before history as the actual leaders of this corruption movement...Carried to its extreme, this corruption movement will destroy us all." He confirms that the Democratic Party is 'the party of treason'. Not many people understand that totalitarian Socialism grows out of moral corruption.

Liberals in reality are Socialists, they are not true Americans as far as I am concerned. They may not necessarily be a conscious part of the conspiracy, but they are part of their immorality, their concepts and lust for power, which are expressions of hard-core Socialism. But the appeaser of treason is no better than the traitor, both are liars who covet other people's money and property and sponsor all and every immoral cause hostile to our creator.

Socialist philosophy is rooted in the concepts of Jean-Jaques Rousseau: that man is good but exposed to the corruption of society, and that it is the corruption of the political and social environment that is responsible for the evil in society. Therefore justification for their policies is the pretense that they are out for justice and want to change the social and political structures to free mankind. That of course is a lie because evil is within every person and the political praxis is reduced to the brutal fight for power by all means playing up, lying to and enlisting the underdog. Only the means are different for the various socialist branches but the principle is the same for all: the end justifies the means. Joseph Goebbels, propaganda minister of Hitler, is quoted in Germany with the statement "...it is not for nothing that we have chosen the name National Socialist German Workers Party (NSDAP), because at heart we are Communists." Briefing his generals before the invasion of the Soviet Union in June of 1941 Hitler told them, that he wanted to bring them 'real Socialism.' His declared intention was to destroy the Christian churches after victory.

American Socialists are closer to Adolf Hitler than to their founding fathers and our constitution. Remember, the Holocaust is only the consequence of a godless concept of the liars, and so is the philosophy of these Socialists, which led to the abortion mass-murder. Four times as many unborn human beings have been killed in abortions than people in Nazi camps, among them six million Jews and six million Germans. I might add those millions who were killed in the Socialist Soviet concentration camps, in one of which also my father perished. I have not heard Gorbachev or Putin apologize to anybody.

Finally, it is also important to realize that terrorism is only a religious subdivision in the battle for global power. The military war has to be fought, as it is being done, but the need for an ideological/moral answer to the vacuum created has to be recognized. Terrorism is based on hatred and class (say religious) warfare and allows murder for power like Marxist/Leninist and National Socialism. It is therefore not a real religion. Sincere Muslims are as naive toward the Islamic murderous political ideology as were we Germans toward the Nazi ideology. They will have to apply absolute truth to their religious teachings and praxis as I had to do to everything German. The Baath Party in Iraq is a Socialist Party and the Soviet Politbureau is responsible for the creation of many of the Middle East intelligence services and terrorist organizations. It also needs to be stated that unchanged Soviet ideology uses military strength only for reasons of blackmail but advances its agenda through subversion.

The majority of the members of the German government including chancellor Schroeder himself refused to refer to God in their oath of office. French President Chirac fought a minority of countries and prevailed in leaving God out in the new European Constitution. The homosexual mayor of Berlin, Wolwereit, led the gay parade in the German capital and demanded more rights for homosexuals and lesbians. One of it the is right of gay people to adopt children, which is being debated now in the Bundestag (Parliament)

Is there a way out of the mess? Yes there is. God is still waiting for America to change and apply His commandments to all sections of society. That implies that Congress makes it impossible for socialist judges to change the Constitution to their very limited godless conceptions. American society can and should work out solutions, which are valid for the whole of the world. God, not vague religious concepts, is the answer to godlessness.
