

The Realities of Israel, Part 2

Hamas leader Haniyeh said at an election victory news conference that Hamas will “complete the liberation of other parts of Palestine.” The Hamas Charter states in article 13, “Peace initiatives, the so-called peaceful solutions and international conferences are all repugnant to the beliefs of Hamas.” On the Hamas Web site you could read what these godless Neo-Nazis think: “My message to the loathed Jews is that there is no god but Allah, we will chase you everywhere. We are a nation that drinks blood and we know that there is no blood better than the blood of Jews. We will not leave you alone until we have quenched our thirst with your blood, and our children’s thirst with your blood.

Sheik Abdul Hadi Palazzi, Secretary General of the Italian Moslem Association vigorously refutes the Muslim extremist position which is that Islam is at war with Judaism, explains Chuck Morse. “This was the position embraced by al-Husseini and remains a mainstay of the Moslem Brotherhood, the Wahabi, Hamas and extremist Islamic group in general.” Sheik Palazzi put it this way: “The idea that Islam should prevent Arabs from recognizing any sovereign rights of Jews over Pal-estine is quite recent and can by no means be found in Islamic classical sources...All parties must understand that Jews should never agree to have fewer rights than other religions, and Israelis will never agree to see David’s capital divided in two parts.”

In the Middle East the truth reaches the surface that the three godless ideologies of hatred, the Nazi ideology, the Marxist/Communist Soviet ideology, and the Islamic terrorist ide-ology, are cousins, branches that grow from the same root—the lie—and share the same purpose—world conquest. Sixty years after the end of World War II, the United States is at war with the ideology of the militarily defeated and eliminated National Socialist state. At the same time the country is at war with the class-war Communist ideology, an ideology that is supposed to have been defeated in the Cold War without recognizing the fact.

Terror-ism must be eliminated. There is no way one can successfully negotiate with terrorists. What is driving them is purpose rooted in hatred which must be addressed and answered. The enemy including Iran and Syria have to be defined and be dealt with as a whole, with his worldview, his ideology, and his action.

Since Israel ceded the Gaza Strip to Arab Palestinians this area is developing into a terrorist haven preparing itself for war against the Jewish State. Weapons enter the “country” via tunnels from Egypt. Never learning from history, negotiations and preparations to cede great part of the West Bank if not all continue. The Israeli government is also being put on notice by the Arabs that peace could only be achieved by adding the Temple Mount and Eastern Jerusalem to the ceded package. Addition-ally Arab Refugees must be allowed to return to Israel. They would overrun the Jews because of their numbers. However, Prime Minister Netanjahu has stated clearly all of Jerusalem will remain under Israeli sovereignty.

The Syrian government declares that they are not interested in war against Israel but that the minimum condition for a peace treaty is the return of the Golan Heights to Syria. At the same time hundreds of missiles of this Arab state are poised for a possible first strike against Israel, according to a report by the World Tribune.com of July 27, 2007. Israeli military sources say that the Scuds C and D as well as the SS-21 missiles could reach virtually any part of the Jewish state. These missiles of course come from Iran. Iran in turn is armed by Soviet Russia and Red China. If war were to break out between Israel and Syria, the Israeli Defense Force would conquer Damascus in a few hours, according to a report by the CSIS, the American Center for Strategic and International Research as reported on August 13, 2007, by Guysen International News. The supremacy of the Israeli air force over that of the Arabs should suffice to neutralize the Syrian air force and DCA systems in a few hours. Hezbollah is also preparing for war with weapons from Iran.

Regarding Western policies insanity seems to reign. As usual our political leaders can only think in terms of election cycles and money, sending the latter to incompetent Arabs without giving them clear conditions for it. It boils down to the fact that the West is bankrolling the blackmailing of Israel by its enemies. Abbas even sends the European Union a request for billions of dollars in order to be able to pay salaries.

There should be no money from Western nations invested in the Gaza strip or the West Bank as long as teachers and politicians, school-books, and the media promote hatred against Israel and the United States, and as long as rockets are fired at Israeli civilians, Arab terrorists prepare for war against Israel, and kidnapped Israeli soldiers are not returned.

A partner for peace must be in full control of this area. That is not the case. I am afraid that the necessary controls will never be put in place. But it does beg the question, why should the Palestinian Arabs come to the West for money and not, for instance, to Saudi Arabia? Instead of forcing their deficient concepts on Israel, Western leaders should give the tiny nation a free hand to defend itself.

Finally, there is an Israeli peace plan on the table put forward by Benny Elon, who is chairman of the National Union Party and a member of the Knesset Foreign Affairs and Defense Committee. "The actions of the Israeli governments to establish a Palestinian state have not brought about peace but rather a whirlpool of blood," said Elon according to an article of Aaron Klein published by WorldNetDaily on November 23, 2007.

Elon refers to the billions of dollars wasted on the Israeli-Arab conflict. His plan suggests that the Arabs living in the 59 UN maintained refugee camps be given rehabilitation packages and the option of moving to outside participating countries, where agencies would work to help with resettlement, employment, and housing solutions. Arabs who wish to remain in the West Bank would become Jordanian citizens. The plan calls for the disintegration of the Palestinian Authority and Israel's continued control of the West Bank, which are the biblical territories of Judea and Samaria.

Elon's plan, called the Israeli Initiative, has already found support in the Knesset and the United States Congress. Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu, read from the plan at the Knesset plenum in a show of solidarity. According to a 2004 poll 50 percent of the Palestinian Arab “refu-gees” would not rule out the option of moving to another country, if they had the ability and means to relocate.

An Arab-Palestinian state is not viable. There is no government in control of the area which is proposed for this state, terrorist attacks on Israel continue, hatred is being taught in education and pro-moted by the “state” media, they not only have no national income but seem to be incapable of creating it and depend on hand-outs from the wrong nations, and on top of it there is a need for an outside military force to contain further violence. What kind of state is that? And why should we with our tax money sustain terrorists? We face the brilliance of our Western politicians!
